

Here in Indiana we have a list restricting telephone solicitations that is working very well. We rarely have such a call now where formerly we often received one or two a day. Please do not enact a Federal rule that would weaken our present state law. We pay dearly for our phone service and should not be subject to constant harassment by advertisers.